

Camp Name: Future Bulldog Tennis Camp

Description: This camp is for beginning and intermediate tennis players. We will instruct players on the proper grip of the racket, forehands, backhands, volleys and serves building in fun drills and games. The participants will be instructed by the high school coaches and players.

Location: BHS Tennis Courts

Type: Athletic

Gender: Coed

Grade Entering: 2-8

Camp Schedule: Grades 2-3: 9:00-9:45 M-F June 1-June 5

Grades 4-5: 10:00-11:00 M-F June 1-June 5

5 Grades 6-8: 11:05-12:05 M-F June 1-June 5

Cost/Fee: Grades 2-3: $55

Grades 4-5: $70

Grades 6-8: $70

Registration Start Date: May 4

Registration End Date: May 29

Maximum Number of Participants: 32 for each time slot

Camp Director: Brad Nelson

Director Bio:

Coach Nelson took over as the Head Varsity Girls Tennis coach at Batavia in 1999. Since that time, the varsity girls have an overall record of 317-96-21. The girls have won 5 conference championships (including this past fall), 1 sectional title and have had 10 second place conference finishes in Coach Nelson's 21 seasons as head coach.

Coach Nelson took over the boys program in 2013, and has a record of 119-26-4 in his 7 years as boys coach. In that time, the varsity boys have won 3 conference titles and 1 sectional title. Coach Nelson teaches fourth grade at Louise White School and lives in Batavia with his wife Amy and kids Andrew, Aleigh and Ana.

Special Instructions: Wear comfortable tennis shoes, age appropriate racket (see link below for racket size chart), water, be sure to wear sunscreen and or a hat.

Racket size information

Logo/Artwork: Bulldog Tennis Logo

Camp Flyer/Brochure: (Link/Optional)

Calendar: (Link/Optional)